

SCOR's US Group Reinsurance operation has moved to a new location in the heart of downtown Minneapolis. The move is the next phase in the expansion of its reinsurance business in the group life, accident and health market.

The new office space in the Capella Tower is a state-of-the-art facility, designed to create an outstanding environment in the center of the city's vibrant business district.

"It's an exciting time at SCOR," said Kelly Munger, Senior Vice President, Group Reinsurance. "While executing our business plan over the last couple of years, we have grown our team of experts to better serve our markets. This new space not only accommodates our current staff, it also gives us the flexibility we need as we continue to grow."

The move reflects SCOR's growing operation in Minneapolis as it increases its footprint in the Group Reinsurance market. Over the past two years, SCOR has expanded its Group Life & Accident reinsurance business and is firmly establishing itself in the Group Health reinsurance market.
